“ Ann was a great aunt, role model, and friend. She taught me to read at the age of three and gave me the gift of books. Ann I love and miss you.

“ Ann was special caring person and a highly valued Division Director at Virginia's Department of Medical Assistance Services. Her knowledge of federal regulations and memory of specific citations with detail, were her professional hallmark. She contributed much to the citizens of Virginia, admired by the Legislative leadership and the Governors she supported, and me. I always felt that much of my success was in having Ann as part of my Executive Staff and as a long time friend. Ann was a true Christian and loved her church, family, and community. She will be missed by many!

“ I remember singing with Ann in the choir at Schoolfield UMC. She was always kind and encouraging. She had a beautiful voice that she used to praise the Lord.

“ David, the CREECH family has so many fond memories of Ann during our time at Schoolfield UMC and the Danville area. She played such a pivotal role in Mark's life regarding health funds and the opportunities he had during his life. Her beautiful smile and angelic voice will forever shine and sing out in my heart. May you feel God's hands surround you and your family through the grace and kindnesses shown by friends across the miles. Sandy Creech Wright and the ENTIRE Creech family

“ David, We were so sorry to hear of the passing of your sister. I know you loved her so much as you often requested prayer for her. Your prayer has finally been answered as she is well now and with Jesus. May God comfort the hearts of you and your family.

“ Dear David and family, I mourn with you the loss of your sister Ann. She was truly a faithful christian and friend to others. For many years growing up in church and scouts, we shared wonderful times. I remember her kindness to others, her beautiful smile and joyful spirit. I know that Ann is at peace with loving family members who rejoice in her arrival, and her Savior Jesus Christ. She has left a tremendous legacy of love and christian service to family and friends. I pray that God will comfort you now and the days ahead. With love and deepest sympathy, Linda Beale Porter
