“ Ann Eanes was a sweet Christian lady that I had the pleasure to get to know and go to church with at GMBC since 2003 after I moved back to Danville from Charlotte NC. She was always kind and I especially have fond memories of her at church events and visiting her at her home. I wasn't able to see her at the nursing home because of the COVID restrictions but my father, Rev. Averette Witcher, called to talk to her on the phone every week. She will be greatly missed. I know she is enjoying her time in heaven with her Savior and with relatives and friends. I'm sure she and my dearly departed mother, Ann H Witcher, are having nice long walks while talking on the streets of glory. Will see you in the rapture dear Lady!
