“ I am deeply saddened to hear about the loss of my friend, and your beloved family member, Clyde. But I am comforted to feel that he is at peace. We met 30 years ago through my dear cousin (more like a sister), Beth Eller, and her mother, Muriel Saul (my second mother), of Danville. I am a professional musician (a graduate of Juilliard now living in New York City) who, as a child, spent summers with my grandmother in Danville. Beth and I grew up together, and I would go back to visit whenever I could. Spending time with Clyde was always on the agenda. He was working at the golf club when we met and, with his warm and welcoming nature, we quickly became friends. He and his sister shared stories about the love of music, and fun, that had filled their house throughout their lives, and I happily joined in. I sent Clyde music for Christmas, and played for him when Beth and I visited. He was a gentleman through and through, generous to a fault, and loved to laugh. A man after my own heart.

“ I'm so sorry for the family's loss of Clyde. He was such a nice, nice person and always seemed to have such a zest for life as I remember him. He had a unique chuckle when he laughed and it was surely contagious. I have fond memories Of Clyde .
Prayers to your family.

“ So sorry for this family's loss. I remember Clyde from the mid 70's and many years after when I attended Shiloh Church and became good friends with so many special people there. Clyde was always so kind to me. My thoughts and prayers for all the family.

“ Clyde had a wonderful voice for singing. He sang with Betty at Shiloh Baptist Church and they both sang in the choir with Carolyn and Kathleen playing piano and organ. Back in the day ... and I truly miss those days and those people. Condolences to his family.
