“ This is a sad day, we are going to miss Bob so much. He has been my neighbor for 25 years. He loved to come down and play ball with my toy poodle Pierre or just sit and talk. He was a kind and gentle man would help anyone if he could. I know he is happy because he is with Lois and he loved her so and missed her. Patty, Junior, and Michael I am so sorry for your loss but you had the best Dad. Bob RIP until we see you again.

“ Bob & Lois were the best neighbors anyone could wish for. We have lived next to them over 40+ years. It was a great loss to lose Lois and over the years Bob was without her we became even closer. He looked out for our mail and newspaper when we traveled and even watered plants if needed. He always smiled but never wanted our thank you gift saying it is never any trouble. We learned how much he loved Werthers Butterscotch candy and Hardees!! We will really miss him walking around his yard and neighborhood and speaking to his friends as they walked or rode their bikes by.

To Patty, Junior and Michael we are so sorry for your loss of this wonderful father.
