“ Lieutenant Lewis (aka “Pappy”) was an example of positive leadership at DPD and he will be sorely missed. His gentle but firm way of speaking with fellow officers and citizens didn't go unnoticed and it helped mold my own experience as a supervisor down the road. Pappy provided spiritual guidance as well and we can only imagine the glory he now knows. Thanks for setting a positive path sir. My best to his family and may God's comfort and Hope bring you peace during your time of loss.

“ We are very sorry to hear about James death. He was a great man. We finished school with him. James always had a smile for everyone. We really had some good times with him in school and out of school. When he was on the police force he told some of our school friends he had a time looking out for me and watching my speed. We had some good times with him and Edith. We know they are having a great reunion in Heaven and the best thing is we will see them again.

“ I have to share this memory weve laughed at for decades. My first trip golfing with you and the guys. When you pulled up, you asked if I had clubs? I said yes sir. I then crawled under my house to pull out green moulded clubs. On the first T,, I swung hard and the end of my club flew off going further than the ball. What a laugh we had! Then you loaned me your clubs I. Love n miss you. Jack Aaron

“ I worked with Jimmy for 32 years at the police departement. He was a gentleman, . We rode to work together for a number of year and lived only a block from each other. We camped together, play golf together. I consider him a true friend. Condolence to his family.

“ Jimmy was one of the best men that I have ever known. I worked with him at the police department for many years and he was the best supervisor that I ever worked for. He was the most "common sense" man that I have ever met.RIP my Friend.

“ I have know JC for over forty years and worked with him for some of those years. JC was the most universally respected Supervisor and Officer at the Danville Police Department that I have ever known. JC was a great husband, father, grandfather, and friend. I looked at Edith and JC as family and will miss them greatly. I know that they are reunited in Heaven now.

I offer my prayers for JC, Jr and Cindy and their families. I share their grief and am honored to have known and shared time with the Lewis family.

“ I was proud to have worked with J.C. at the Danville Police Department for many years. He was known as a mentor and favorite supervisor to all of the police officers during his tenure there. His focus on and support of his family and friends was very impressive. It is with honor that I pay my respect to a man of such great character.
