“ I am so sorry for your loss. While I did not know Joe, the Moss name rung a bell with me and when I saw the Gammon name and Vandola RD, I thought maybe he was related to my stepfather, Percy Norman Gammon. I think he was raised in that area for a while. I have always wanted to meet his family.
May God give you peace and comfort in knowing Joe was loved and now resting in Heaven and watching over you.

“ Uncle Joe was always willing to help anyone and he was one of the hardest workers I've ever known. He was always so good to me and my sister and just good to anyone. I recently talked with him and learned just how great his sense of humor was and he had us all laughing that afternoon. I'm thankful that I was able to spend some time with him in recent months and I'm just truly heartbroken for my family.

“ Rest In peace Joe. I'll never forget staying at grandma Moss house and walking to the store for her. I was walking back with a heavy bag had a pretty good ways to go, Joe tried to get me to let him take me to grandma's in his truck. I said no my daddy said never ride with strangers. He tried to convince me that he was family but I wouldn't listen and kept walking.
I got to grandmas house exhausted and hot a little while later. There sat Joe on the porch with grandma and Emma. She said well we know you listen to what you're told. Everytime I saw Joe after that he'd say just tell me if you ever need a ride..and he would laugh.
Rest in peace Joe you were a sweet man.
