“ Shirley was a wonderful GW High School friend! Many years later she was in our very special "Girls" group-meeting once a month at various places to eat- talk- and share some family news, friend news and just enjoy being together! Special memories will always be cherished!

“ Dear Sherri and Family,

I am so sorry about your Mom's passing and the struggles she endured in her fight against cancer and Alzheimer's . She was the sweetest, most cordial lady you could ever meet. I can hear her voice as she welcomed you into her home, which she loved to decorate, and offer you a wonderful home-grown meal from the garden that she and Richard had together. She was always the proud hostess and made you feel so comfortable and loved. I have pictures of family gatherings from when we were little to when our children were little. Your Mom, my Aunt Shirley, lived a wonderful life and was a strong and giving person. She was there when my Mom was sick and needed support from her sister. I was so relieved to have Aunt Shirley there with us as we went through that saddest of times when my Mom passed away. Sherri, I hope you know how much we will all miss your Mom and we love you. I know some time has gone by since your Mom's passing but I wanted to send my condolences and love.

Take care,
Kathy

“ It was a joy to see Shirley every day when I visited my mom. I will miss seeing her clean the table and straighten the flowers on the counter! It is weird walking by her room and not seeing her there. Sending prayers for the family.

“ Shirley and I attended the same schools both in North Danville and George Washington High School. We were in the same graduating class. We also were in a group who met twice a year for a meal out. She was always so friendly, sweet, and intelligent. We also used the beauty parlor so I saw her often. She will surely be missed. Becky Dalton

“ I have fond memories of her, her sisters and her mother. I lived over three years, after I graduated from Averett College having come from another town, next to Shirley's mother. I never forgot those times.

Very sorry for your loss.

“ Shirley was a dear friend to us, the "high school girls," and we have missed her so much at our twice-a-year get-together. There were other times that our paths crossed, and she was always a ray of sunshine. Heaven just received one classy lady. Jean Santerre, one of the "high school girls," is not online, but she asked me to share her condolences as I share my own. We are saddened by the loss of our sweet friend, She was loved by many, so many share your loss. We extend our love to you!
