“ Precious family members, my prayers are with you in your sudden and sad loss. We are never ready to say goodbye to our loved ones but we can rejoice that Shirley is in a peaceful place and in the presence of our Lord Jesus. I regret not being with you tomorrow; I will certainly be with you in spirit. Between covid and the gas crisis this is yet another frustration to being able to gather.] I have fond memories of the little country cabin your dad and mom shared with the family; we had several delightful reunions there and they were always such gracious hosts. I also can remember they married so young and always seemed so happy and in love, a wonderful model for all your family. May God bless and comfort you all and hold you close together in the days ahead. Love and prayers,
Barbara Roberts (Marie's daughter)
