“ We were so sorry to hear about the loss of Steve. I was walking on the road a few months back, when Steve stopped me to see if I had retired. I thought maybe he was thinking about that too. We had all been kids together on this hill and now we are all retirement age. Time really does fly when you are having fun.

“ To Jimmy, Jennifer, Ann and family. This is Jay Landrum. Sorry we couldn't be there to help support y'all. We're visiting with friends in Kentucky. I have so many fond memories of Steve during our childhood (some I'd share and some I wouldn't. What can I say we were boys) we were all family in that neighborhood and we were all loved. His passing was such a shock to me and he will be greatly missed. We'll be praying for y'all and the family .

“ Everyone knew his laugh; he tickled so easily. But Steve was sentimental too. He loved his Momma. He loved his children. He loved our poodle, Curly Sue. At Riverside theater, he stood sobbing into my shoulder at the end of Titanic. One cold December morning I cranked my car and heard Aaron Neville singing out “Bells will be ringing...” – as a surprise, Steve had bought the CD and put it in the car player overnight so I would hear it first thing. Near, far, wherever you are Steve, your heart will go on and on.

“ I had the privilege of growing up with Steve, from the nursery at Mt. Hermon Baptist Church, all the way through graduation at Tunstall High School, class of '78. Steve was always a good friend, lots of fun, and he had a mischievous sense of humor. First and foremost, though, Steve was always a great guy. I count it a blessing to have known him and called him my friend.
I am praying for your family during this time.
