

Wanda Dalton Angle

January 21, 1961 - August 10, 2020

Wanda Dalton Angle, 59, of 553 Lands End Road, Lot 10, Danville, VA went home to be with the Lord on Monday, August 10, 2020 after being in declining health for the past several months.

Wanda was born in Danville, VA on January 21, 1961 a daughter to the late Cecil Lee Dalton and Christine Thornton Dalton. She had lived all of her life in Danville where she was a graduate of George Washington High School. Wanda had formerly worked for Holiday Village as an assistant manager and as an administrative assistant for the former Danville Regional Hospital. She was of the Christian Faith.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by a son, Staton Clay Angle and wife Megan, of Charlotte, NC; granddaughter, Wrena Angle; a sister, Betty Thornton, of Danville, VA; and a special friend, Michael Everett.

A private service may be conducted at a later date.

The family will be at the residence, 553 Lands End Road (off Elizabeth St) Lot 10, Danville, VA 24541.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is serving the Angle family.

“ Wanda was a very special and strong spirited woman. I met her through her cuz Patty, that day 20 yrs ago Wanda treated like family. I have the greatest memories with her and Patty at the farm house hot tubing with drinks, clubbing, races, early mornings g coffee on her big front porch,delicious cooking, parties, family gatherings and most of all the Halloween spook trails and parties. She was a strong woman, kind d and sweet to all. Her door was always open and anyone that knew Wanda was blessed. She will be missed, but I know she is free and healthy now. Fly high my friend and we will meet again. Love you step cuz. 😊
