

Adele Levine

September 16, 2018

Adele Levine, of Oceanside, New York, died peacefully on Sunday, September 16, 2018, at her daughter's home in Danville, Virginia, after a brief illness.

She was born Adele Levinson in Bayonne, New Jersey and later graduated from Syracuse University. She was a lover of music and the arts, movies and mystery novels and all things dessert. Most of all she had an insatiable curiosity and unquenchable thirst for knowledge about people and things, spending hours researching anything and everything, first in libraries and encyclopedias, and eventually on the internet. For many years she was the Human Resources Director for Group Council Mutual Insurance Company in New York City, where she cultivated life-long friendships. Since her retirement, she has been a dedicated volunteer at South Nassau Communities Hospital. She was an adored and devoted mother, mother-in-law, sister and grandmother.

She is survived by her children, Alan, Jill and her husband, Johnny, and David and his wife, Sheryle; her grandchildren, Elissa, Nicole, and Taylor; and her BFF Lucille Weener. She was predeceased by her brother, Dr. Gilbert Levinson.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to the Lustgarden Foundation for Pancreatic Cancer Research or Sovah Hospice of Danville, Va. The family is forever grateful for the selfless care and compassion provided by Connie Wright and Sharon Whitehead. Observance of her passing will take place in New York later this week.
