

Algie Don Poole

November 4, 1931 - August 13, 2025

Algie Don Poole, 93, of Ringgold, Va, passed away peacefully Wednesday morning at home, surrounded by family.

Don was born to Ernest Ola and Sallie Mayhew Poole on Nov 4, 1931 in Gretna, Va. He is survived by his wife, Joanne Witcher Poole of 71 years, two daughters, Ivy Poole Helms, and Vickey Poole Sloane as well as one sister, Kitty Waddell. He is preceded in death by one daughter, Anita Poole Watson; two brothers, Fred Poole and Billy Poole; three sisters, Mary Nuckols, Herley Hudson, and Agnes Trent.

He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, and friend. He served in the US Army and was a member and former Deacon of Ringgold Baptist Church. He spent most of his career in credit management and banking. After retiring, Don served as Treasurer and on the Board of Directors for the Ringgold Volunteer Fire Department.

The family will receive friends at 1pm on Friday, Aug 15, 2025 with a celebration of life service immediately following at 2pm. The service will be held at Ringgold Baptist Church with Dr. Randal Helms and Rev Duane Caldwell serving as officiants.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Ringgold Fire

Department or to Ringgold Baptist Church.

We would like to thank Medi-Home Hospice for the great care they have given and also his caregivers: Helen Poole, Debra Hardy and Tammy Shelton.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ Deepest and sincere sympathies to Joanne, Ivy and Vickey and all the Poole family in the passing of Mr Don Poole. The Poole family were wonderful friends and next door neighbors to my late father and mother, Melvin and Helen Wiles. Our family continues to enjoy many warm memories of you all. Praying that our merciful God will continue to bless and protect each of you during this time of sorrow.

Sincerely,

Ken and Linda Wiles
