

Artie Ray Day

September 27, 1958 - February 5, 2018

Artie Ray Day of Fleetwood, NC, departed this earthly life to be with the Lord on Monday, February 5.

He was born on September 27, 1958 in Danville, VA. Artie was the son of the late A.Z. Day and the late Annie Lewis Day of Ringgold.

He is survived by his wife, Jeriann S. Day and his daughter, Megan Day of the home. He is also survived by his two brothers, Andrew Z. Day (Rhonda) of Manakin Sabot, VA, and Alan L. Day (Kay) of Charlotte, NC. He also leaves many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends to mourn his loss, but they are all blessed for having known him.

Artie spent much of his life in Ringgold where his love for being outdoors and enjoying adventure eventually led him to the mountains of North Carolina.

The family will receive visitors on Thursday, February 8 at Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel from 1:00pm to 2:00pm. Funeral Service will be held at 2:00pm on February 8 at Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with interment to follow in Floral Hills Memory Gardens.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent to Aversboro Road Baptist Church, 1600 Aversboro Rd., Garner NC 27529. The family is at 465 Sandy Creek Church Road, Ringgold, VA 24586.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Day family.

“ Artie was a good person, went to church with our family and we would hear of the trips that his dad took with his sons. We wish his family sympathy in the days ahead. He was a friend of my brother. Rest in peace Artie.

“ Artie used to ride his dirt bike from 58 to 360 to come see me when We were in high school. Caught up with him again in 1983. Many good memories of this sweet man. A piece of my heart goes with him.

“ I have only worked with Artie for a few years but he was always a ray of sunshine. Always on top of his work he would interject humor into everything he did. Artie you will be missed.

“ I worked with Artie for many years on his sites near Boone. He had a great understanding of his network and knew what was going on before anyone else. Really just an excellent person to work with. He liked to brag about his BBQ and how it smoked it for hours....I always got a rise out of him when I would say I could get the same flavor with a crockpot and some liquid smoke....ohhh he would laugh.

Gonna miss you.

“ Artie and I were crew mates at Harris Plant. He could always be counted on to cut through the haze of some of the nonsensical things we had to do. And he was always good to share a good story.

One Monday morning after he had attended a family function, he told us of something his Aunt Audrey had said. I asked, "Is she the who us married to your Uncle JD?"

The look of puzzlement on his face was priceless. "Yeah," he answered, still not understanding how I knew that. "As a matter of fact, she is."

I waited until just before quitting time before I let him know that my best friend was Audrey's nephew on the Garrett side.

“ Artie was always fun to be around. We camped out in the tree house behind Barry Neals house and always attended Lakewood church. Lots of fond memories being his friend and growing up with Artie. Rest in peace.

“ This is Tom Houser, and I was a classmate of Artie's all through DR Elem. I remember in the 4th grade when Mrs. Atkinson had to have a chair brought in from like the 7th grade. And Artie had to sit in the back so we wouldn't have to try to see over him. He was also always high pick when we played baseball at school. WOW could he hit the ball!! He was awesome. Never picked, teased, bullied. I loved him.

“ When my mom and dad and I went to North Carolina for Jeriann and Artie's wedding in 1992, we sometimes had a hard time understanding Artie's southern accent. As Yankees from Ohio, we weren't so sure of some of the things he said - especially my dad. Artie had to repeat the sentence, "I right reckon' it'll be raining down there." 3 times before my dad turned to me and asked, "What in the hell is he sayin'?" I said, "He thinks it will be raining there Dad." Artie just laughed. I will never forget that! I'm glad he was able to come to Ohio with Jeriann and Megan in November and celebrate Thanksgiving with us. I will miss his big bear hugs and that Southern drawl. I wish we could be there for Jeriann and Megan and I send our love and prayers. God will be with you every step of the way through this very difficult time. God bless you both.
