“ Bob and family, please accept the deepest sympathy to all of you from my mother, Mattie Wilson, and myself during this sad time. I know that Barbara is certainly with our Lord, as He has wrapped His loving arms around her, welcoming her Home.

I think of all the good times during our lives, especially the ones you, Bob, shared with my father, Bud Wilson. I know you learned a lot from him, and he always thought a lot of you.

Sending our very best to all of you.

“ I haven't seen Barbara since high school, but I remember her. Bob and I grew up in Ringgold and our families knew one another back during our childhood. Bob, even though I haven't seen you in decades, my roots are in Ringgold and I always remember those that I grew up around. I'm so sorry for your loss.
