“ Barbara was one of the first individuals I met when I went to work for First National Bank of Danville in 1976. She was one of the kindest, most professional women I ever met in the banking industry. Barbara always had a smile on her face, always treated everyone with respect but most of all, I knew she loved the Lord and her family. Ann and Jim, your mother was a dear lady. She is one of the angels in Heaven now reunited with your father. May God bless each of you. David Rogers, Kernersville, NC

“ What wonderful memories I have of Barbara. When I was in high school, she was a substitute teacher; then when I went to work, Barbara was, also, at the same office of the bank. I loved her so much as a dear friend and know that our Lord has welcomed home one of His most precious angels. My deepest sympathy to the family. Cynthia Wilson Guill, Greensboro, NC
