

Beatrice Basham Walker

February 1, 1932 - April 22, 2017

Beatrice Basham Walker, 85, of 220 James Rd., Danville, VA, died on Saturday, April 22, 2017 at Danville Regional Medical Center after a decline in health for the past two years.

Mrs. Walker was born in Bedford, VA on February 1, 1932, daughter of the late William Basham and the late Pearl Cundiff Basham. She spent all of her life in the Danville area where she worked for Dan River Mills. She was a member of Woodlawn Baptist Church. In her spare time, she loved traveling to visit family members that lived out of town.

On June 5, 1954, she married Lewis Jackson Walker, who survives of the residence.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Pam Lawson (Jerry), of Danville, VA; a grandson, Justin Lawson (Melanie), of Fort Lauderdale, FL; a step-grandson, Chris Lawson (Corrie); three sisters; one brother; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted on Wednesday, April 26, 2017 at 2:00 P.M. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with the Reverend Bradley Childress officiating. Interment will follow in Danville Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service and at other times at the residence.

The family suggests memorial donations may be made to the charity of your choice.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Walker family.

“ I miss you Bea. You loved me and I love you. You will always be my "second" mama. I will try my best to help out Pam and will check in on Lewis from time to time. I am happy in knowing that you are free from pain and suffering there in the arms of Jesus so if you are allowed, reach down and give Lewis and Pam a hug and kiss.
