

Betty Jo Brumfield

February 10, 1942 - September 7, 2025

Betty Jo Johnson Brumfield, 83, of Danville, VA, died Sunday, September 7, 2025 at Roman Eagle Rehabilitation and Health Care after a one month decline in her health.

Betty Jo was born in Farmville, VA, on February 10, 1942, a daughter of the late Leo Preston Johnson and LaMere McCall Johnson Pollard. She lived most of her life in Danville, VA, and she retired from the Danville Urologic Clinic where she worked as a Nurse and as Supervisor of the Nursing Team. Betty Jo previously worked at Danville Memorial Hospital.

Betty Jo was of the Christian faith. She was a graduate of Bluestone High School in Skipwith, VA, and the Danville Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She enjoyed gardening and caring for and feeding her neighbors.

On April 10, 1964 she married Rafael Wayne Brumfield, who died on May 23, 2022.

Survivors include a son, Dr. Jay Christopher Brumfield (Sharon Levy) of Westfield, NJ; a daughter, Dr. Heather LaMere Greenfield (Adam) of Oldsmar, FL; a granddaughter, Lauren Brumfield of Cambridge, MA; a sister, Elaine Keane (Timothy); a half-brother, Gary Johnson (Ginger); and a half-sister, Martha Pollard.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, September 11, 2025 at 2:00 P.M. at Highland Burial Park with the Reverend Wade Rowland officiating. Memorials may be made to God's Pit Crew, 2499 N. Main Street, Danville, VA 24540.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Brumfield family.

“ In 1981 Betty Jo Brumfield took me back for an interview with Dr Jack Hall and herself. The interview went well. I was hired to work in the lab. Betty Jo and I both stood up and my ankle twisted and she caught me right there in front of Dr Hall. Betty Jo Brumfield was just like that the entire time I worked at the urologic clinic.. I hope she did get to do some archaeological digging. A truly wonderful person..
