“ I have such wonderful memories of many summers at the lake place with Jean and Dad when my children were growing up. Laughing until we were breathless, fishing on the cove at sunrise, with the fog still on the water. When no one else would be catching fish, Jean would be pulling them in one after another... lol Jean and Dad had such a special love, I always loved how they were together, and I was so thankful they found each other even if it was later in life, she was so good to my Dad. You are such a beautiful soul Jean, I love you forever. Thank you for always being a true friend, and for loving my Dad !
