“ When I first got married and moved away from home I was a little nervous of who would be our neighbors but God truly blessed me and over the years Betty and I developed a deep friendship. She helped me in so many ways. She taught me things I didn't know. I love her for that. One of the best was how to fry chicken. Hahaha! To this day it is still not as good as hers. I'm going to miss her so much. I'm going to miss bringing her the mail or just sitting and chatting. Betty loved the little things and that was most appreciated. I know she is in Heaven and I know she is not suffering . For this I'm truly grateful. Betty is now a sweet Angel.
