

Betty Jean Williams

September 2, 1929 - April 12, 2017

Betty Jean Williams, 87, of Danville, Virginia, died April 12, 2017 at Danville Regional Medical Center. She had been residing at Riverside Health and Rehabilitation Center since October 2016.

Betty was born September 2, 1929 in Halifax County, Virginia, the daughter of Robert Ernest Williams and Virginia Viola Hicks Williams Jones.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Alvin James Williams; three brothers, Robert Kenneth Williams, Wycliff Ernest Williams and John Vivian Williams; and great grandson, Drake Jameson McCollum.

Most of Betty's life was spent in the Danville area as a homemaker. She was dearly loved by her family and friends and will be missed by all. She was described by many as one of the sweetest and kindest ladies they had ever met. Also, Betty was one of Jehovah's Witnesses and attended the Highland Heights Congregation in Danville, Virginia. She served God faithfully until her death and was always happy to comfort people with the good news of God's Kingdom and encourage faith in Jesus Christ.

Survivors include a son, James Vincent Williams (Phyllis) of Franklinville, North Carolina; and a daughter, Charle Elaine Williams of Danville, Virginia. Also surviving are three grandchildren, April Williams Murray (Jim), Cara

McCollum, and Bryan McCollum (Sasha); three great grandchildren, Patrick McCollum, Sean McCollum, and Anthony McCollum; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 22, 2017 at two o'clock in the afternoon at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 300 Terry Avenue, Danville, Virginia.

At other times the family will receive friends at the residence, 146 Mary Miles Drive, Danville, Virginia.

“ Charle and Jimmy...We are so very sorry to hear about Aunt Betty. When I think of your Mom and Dad both, I always remember going on family vacations to the dairy farm and getting to see you all and Granny. What happy, fun-filled times we all had together. Our whole family has laughed many times over the years about the pig getting loose and Uncle Alvin chasing after him.

This is such a beautiful picture of Aunt Betty. I know she and Dad will be looking down over us...just waiting for the day when we can all be together again.

We love you all and will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
