“ She always put others first! She adored her husband all 61 years. The love of her life she found in Tabatha. Her grandchildren and great-grand children were the light in her life. Amazing cook and human being. There will never ever be a cross word spoken of this angel! Loved by all and will be cherished and loved by all. She will be missed immeasurably and remembered by everyone . Rest easy in the Lord's loving arms until we get there. God watch over this family and give them strength to find peace. I love you granny Blanche!!
