I am praying that the Lord will lift your heavy hearts and replace the emptiness with love and many happy memories of Uncle Bob. I will never forget all the smiles that he gave and received from me when I was a little girl. I especially remember one of many occasions when he took me shopping around Christmas when we came to visit. Uncle Bob took me out by himself and allowed me to pick any baby doll I wanted from a local store. I was so excited to have that baby that really crawled as the TV commercials promised, I was hesitant to ask for the one I really wanted for fear the cost was too much. Uncle Bob assured me I was worth whatever baby I wanted. I was on top of the world carrying my new baby home and caring for it as if real. In my life this was one very defining moment that I know the Good Lord sent to me through my Uncle Bob. This one Beautiful moment in childhood has repeated itself in my mind many times to lift my spirit when it was in much need. Uncle Bob did the same for many children I know but will always hold a special place in my heart.
