“ The memory of Bobby Lee, that stands out the most, is from around 1969-70. On one of our visits to Grandpa (Willie Hudgins), Bobby Lee came over. My sisters, Trina and Joy Hudgins weren't use to a boisterous voice like Bobby's. Trina ran into the other room, scared half to death. It was years before she would stay in the same room with him. The Hudgins family circle in Heaven is bigger now.

“ Bobby Lee was known as "Blackberry" to us at the Burger King on South Boston Rd. He was always a trip to see at our store and he always did his best to make you smile. I'm gonna miss him and his loud self, I'm sure the crew at this store that had the pleasure of meeting him feels the same. Our condolences to his family at this difficult time.
