“ To the Gibson family, Wanda, Charles and Frances ; I am so sorry about your husband and father. I read it in a newspaper that was at at friends house. Thank God I saw it and now able to let you know how sorry I am. My dad was William Richard Matkins and am his daughter Linda. I grew up with Brady , Paul, Larry, Sally and Elaine, and after my dad'd death I would have a few chances to visit with the family. All the brothers and sisters are very special to me. I did not know of the passing of Larry and Elaine until months after they both had died! Brady my dad loved all of you so very much as well as me. Your entire family is in my prayers and my ❤️ heart! I have lost touch with the family and have not seen any of them since aunt Ruth's funeral. Again I am so very sorry for your loss; I hope we can keep in touch! Brady you have a lot of aunts, uncles, sister and brothers and mom and your dad waiting for you! Your life seemed to be over too soon, but God has his reasons for what he does; some day I will be with you too, tell my dad I miss him a lot! May God bless your family🙏😭 Linda Matkins Saunders
