“ Son, today a year ago you went away. I lost such a wonderful young man and the world lost an amazing soul. For those who knew you what a gift for those who didn't get the pleasure to meet you what a loss. This world has a huge hole in it now and so does my heart. There are no words to describe the hurt,emptiness, loss,sadness, and this pain. There's not a day that goes by that I don't think about you, talk about you or cry. I miss you so much and I wished I could hug you and tell you I love you. Your brother misses you so much and we both need our Brandon. Everyday is a struggle when I awake to face the day and your not here. I try and find comfort in all the wonderful memories you left me with but memories aren't the same as having you here. I long to see your handsome face with such a beautiful smile and to hear your voice. I miss my hugs,and our times we would meet and have lunch and talk. I miss hearing so much mom I love you goodnight be safe at work. I miss you so much Brandon and I love you so much. I cried the day you went away and I've cried everyday since. There will never be a day that your not on my mind, thought about, your name spoken, missed or loved. You are forever in my thoughts, memories and in my heart. I will always keep you close and cherish you. Remember what we use to say? It's always been Brandon, Tyler, and mom and it's always gonna be the same. Although your not here in the body your hear in our hearts and souls and there you will always be. I love you son to the moon and back and I miss you like crazy.

“ Hey son I just want u to know that I miss u so much. My heart is so broken and I have such a hard time with u being gone. It's getting no easier everyday when I awake I feel like I'm loosing u all over again. I love you and I miss u like crazy

Nancy Brandon - April 10, 2016 at 05:44 PM

“ Hi son, just wanted to tell you that I miss you so much. You know I was thinking about when you were born and how you didn't come with a instruction manual. I was a young mother figuring it out and learning really quick how to take care of you. I sheltered you, protected you, and carried you everywhere. I'm so lost and my heart is so broken. I feel like everyday when I awake I'm reliving you leaving all over again. You and Tyler are my world and I love you both unconditionally. If I could trade my life for yours and bring you back I would. Your brother misses you terribly, we both are so lost, your so missed and loved. I wished I could hug u and tell you how much I love you. You know you didn't come with a instruction manual to tell me how I'm supposed to live without you. My days aren't getting any better and time does nothing for my broken heart. I just miss, miss, miss you. I love you son. Hugs and kisses

I just don't know how I'm ever gonna normal again. I was young when I had you and we grew up together. I carried you around everywhere and sheltered you and your brother. I'm just so lost without you. I can't see your handsome face and that beautiful smile. I can't hear you say momma. How am I supposed to live the rest of my life without you? This hurt that I feel is like no hurt I've ever felt. I have no peace with you leaving and I don't think I ever will. This isn't right and I can't except this. Last month at this hour was the worst day of my life and every day that has followed hasn't gotten any better. I miss you so much Brandon. There's no words for how I feel. I'll never stop missing you, or loving you. I love you Brandon and I miss you like crazy.*

“ I didn't know him except what Vic put on Facebook and I prayed for him everyday .God be with his family and send them your peace .But in my heart with 8 children ,I know peace has to be hard to find for if I lost one I don't know how I could get through it but with the faith that one day I would be with them again. So I will keep my prayers for his family . He looks like a sweet young man .Gone too soon .Bless you all .You have a special angel looking out for you .

“ Nancy and Tyler, mere words are not adequate to express the sorrow David and I feel for your loss. We both consider ourselves fortunate to have known Brandon. His kind spirit and warm nature will keep him in our lives. Brandon truly had a huge heart which is a testament to you and he will never be forgotten. Know that David and I are carrying you and Tyler in our hearts and would consider it an honor should you think of any way in which we could ease your burden during this time.
