“ Carol was my best pal for four years. We met through Suzy Smith who was assigned to me to be a student teacher. Carol and Suzy lived together with a cat and a bird - and a yellow Volkswagen. Yellow Volkswagen's were like a "sign" to her - and every time she saw one she felt as if she received a message from her guardian angel. We were in Bible Study together and she invited me to come to sing a solo at her church Thanksgiving Sunday. It was the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). It was a smaller church then I was used to attending but I loved it. The pastor invited me to become the youth minister and a paid choir member. Because of Carol's invitation I decided to totally embrace that denomination and they sent me to Vanderbilt to seminary. I served as a pastor for 40 years. How many people Carol blessed through that one invitation!

I have a picture of her framed on my bookshelf. (I tried to take a picture of it and attach it. Hope it works. Those of us in our seventies have a difficult time with technology!) It's a silly picture when she was clowning around on our trip to Jamestown one year. It always reminds me to be happy and to love the Lord in all things. That was the Carol I knew. Always a caring listener to everything around her and always finding the positive and faithful way of looking at life. The world has lost a true light.

“ Carol was my roommate in Richmond, VA... I was going to her Facebook page to wish her a happy birthday when I discovered she graduated to glory in April. When we met, I was completing my student teaching. We shared my first apartment. She had a cat and a bird, and I will never forget the day I came home and found bird ALL OVER THE APARTMENT! That cat traumatized me... LOL... Carol had such a BIG heart. I will always remember her JOY. I remember coming home to tell her about terrible things I had experienced in my day, and she would say, "Praise the Lord!" She truly taught me the truth in 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18. "Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." She was a bridesmaid in my wedding to Ron MacDuff. Carol, I loved you, and I am sorry I am just now learning of your graduation to heaven. I know you are in the arms of your Savior, and I look forward to seeing you again one day as we rejoice together in heaven for all eternity. Rest in peace, my friend. I will be donating to God's Storehouse in your memory... Sending deepest sympathies to the family. Carol was a dear friend and beautiful soul. I know she is missed for she made this world a better place.

“ I remember being in elementary school and having to write a report of several states. Carol worked at the tourism bureau and she sent my brother Kelly and I all this information. With our mother's help we got all the information to complete our reports. Carol was such a thoughtful and kind person. She always seemed to look on the bright side of things. She was an angel May she Rest In Peace.

“ Carol was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. I remember visiting her in Richmond many years ago. My heart goes out to her family during this sad time.

“ I think when we were in high school and shortly before heading off to college, Carol gave us each a wood cut-out in cursive of our first names, Kelly and Kyle. I thought then and now what a sweet thing to do and for her to think of us like that. I still have mine to this day. It was on a shelf at home in Oak Ridge and on a shelf in my dorm room at UT. Every time I've moved, it has moved with me. When I look at it, I think of her. She always had a big heart, some might say too big for her own good, but that was Carol. She and my wife share the same birth date and usually exchanged little birthday greetings each year. I find much peace in knowing that she is in a better place showing off that big heart of hers.
