

Carolyn Fair Turner

October 22, 1944 - August 8, 2022

Carolyn Fair Turner, 77, of 763 Mountain Hill Road, Ringgold, VA went home to be with her Lord on Monday, August 8, 2022 at Sovah Health in Danville.

Mrs. Turner was born in Rockingham County, NC on October 22, 1944, a daughter of the late Sam McCubbins and Edna Patterson McCubbins. She spent all of her life in the Cascade Community and the Mountain Hill Community where she was a graduate of Brosville High School. She was a member of Willis Memorial Baptist Church.

Mrs. Turner was married to Ronald Edward Turner, for 55 years, who survives of the residence.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Turner is survived by her son Ron Turner of Ringgold, VA.

She was predeceased by her parents; her brother, Mac McCubbins; and sisters, Mary Evans and Doris Barber.

A graveside service will be conducted on Thursday, August 11, 2022 at 11:00 AM at Floral Hills Memory Gardens with the Reverend Wade Rowland officiating.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Turner family.

“ I so loved all the different sides of Carolyn. From the years of hard work hiring at Dan River Mills, the dedication side to the patients at Danville Oncology, the fun loving side of her at the Mojo Room, the mother's love for her son Ron, her strength in the love of God and such a special aunt to me since the day I was born. Rest in peace. Love always, Deborah
