“ To Mr. Mayhew's family and friends . . . we just recently found out about Mr. Mayhew's death. Somehow we missed it in the paper. We knew him from our dad, Nando Teague, living on Shumate Street a few houses down on the other side. Our dad passed away a few years ago, but during the time when we stayed with him, we would see Mr. Mayhew. We only knew him as a quiet and pleasant neighbor. As we cared for our dad, we would see Mr. Mayhew walking his dog. He would always wave when we passed by. Once when the weather was very cold and we needed some emergency heat, he came down and showed us how to light the kerosene heater. We were so thankful for his kindness. Although our encounters were brief, we felt blessed to know he was nearby. Thank you for sharing all the wonderful pictures. May you continue to enjoy these sweet memories for many years.

“ It says to share a memory of Carroll Mayhew But there are too many to put down. But one memory I will always hold true is how Tina's biological Daddy loved Dad for stepping up to be her Dad and my Biological Daddy has always said he was glad that we had Carroll in our lives. It speaks volumes of respect to this man we call Dad when our Father's family calls/texts with their condolences. We don't do step in this family. I don't have a step mom. (Steps are for climbing) I have another mom. It's what's in the heart that matters.

“ This is our dad and these kids Papa. Here are a few memory photos over the years. I didn't post that many because I could fill pages. He is “Gone too Soon”. “Now You Belong to Heaven”. Praise God I know dad was saved and I know I will se him again!! ❤️❤️🦋🦋❤️
❤️ Dad..... I will always be your baby girl. (He always called me that & I loved hearing it)

I'm going to miss this wonderful man. He had a heart full of gold and loved family. No disrespect to my biological father..... but this man Carroll who I've always called Dad, he stepped up to be my dad and J and Eme's grandpa. He never had to do that, however he loved us all so much he DID do that!!

He always listened to me and gave great advice. He has been there for me in happy time and sad times. He never turned his back on me.... Ever.... he was my security person to go to for anything. He always made things better in his calm voice.

I only seen him angry a hand full of times during my life) none at me. Lol....

I could go on and on about all of my wonderful memories that was the best years of our lives. I am only sharing a few photos and a couple of memories on here.

*Dad.... I love you! I miss you!! R.I.P. love, your baby girl. 🦋🦋❤️

“ I first met Carrol back in the 80's the family moved in next door and this man came walking across my yard with a guitar in his hand. He said hello I'm Carroll your new neighbor and we sit there for hours talking and he played and sing. He later became my son's father in law. Yes my son fell in love with the little girl next door. We shared a grand daughter. So the nice neighbor has been in my life one way or another for many years. And believe me ,they don't make them like Carroll anymore he treated my son like his own and I respected him very much,he was a father figure to Bryan in many ways. Carroll you will be missed by many, I know I will miss you ,rest now my friend ,you deserve it. Judy
