“ I just heard and I am sorry that I could not be there for a very old friend. Chad lived 4 houses up from me growing up and there was never a dull moment when he was around. We would fight each other one day and then go ride motorcycles together the next...nothing ever was serious enough to last more than a day as a kid. I'm sorry that his time was so short and for those he left.

“ Well... You were the best dad I could hope for considering what all you were going through and what's you'd been through. When mom let you and granny took care of me, made sure I had everything. You've always tried to be the cool parent. I'm gonna miss you talking so much never letting me get a word in, I'm gonna miss bike week, going to miss you playing loud music through the house so I can't sleep, gonna miss how you aren't afraid of anyone, gonna miss your jokes. I'm gonna miss everything... I'm so glad you got to me at least go to prom. You always liked seeing me dressed up because we both know it's only every once in a while that happened. we had our differences but I never wanted this. I love you. I miss you.

“ Uncle Chad...I cant believe I'm sitting here writing this...it still doesn't seem real. You were always a fun uncle and you never failed to make me laugh. I always remember you calling me "goober" and constantly picking with me. You had a smile that could light up a room and even though you made people want to choke you 90% of the time, no one could ever stay mad at you :) I love you and I will miss you

I met Chad at Mt. Hermon Elementary School in 1980. He was a great childhood friend. Many great memories of passing notes in class, "Do you like me? Yes or No." Makes me to smile to just think about it. I am sad to hear of his passing. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.
