

Charles Robert Moll

April 25, 1946 - September 15, 2014

Charles Robert Moll, 68, of 215-K Seminole Trail, Danville, VA, died Monday, September 15, 2014 at his residence after a decline in his health since 1990 from a long battle with COPD.

Mr. Moll was born in Philadelphia, PA, on April 25, 1946, a son of the late Charles H. Moll and the late Alice Gallagher Moll. He moved from Philadelphia, PA to Danville, VA in 1959 and graduated from George Washington High School. He retired from Walmart, due to disability, in 1990 where he had worked as Electronics Manager, and he was of the Methodist faith.

He was a veteran, serving in the U.S. Navy in Vietnam.

On October 30, 1980, he married Edith Wyatt Moll, who survives.

In addition to his wife, of the residence, he is survived by two sons, Trampas Alderson, and his wife Candy, of Danville, VA, and Troy Alderson, and his wife Michelle, of Danville, VA; a daughter, Tracey A. Carey, of Pelham, NC; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, September 18, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. from the Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel with the Reverend J. Brian Edwards officiating. Interment will follow in Highland Burial Park with military honors conducted by the American Legion Dan River Post 1097 and the U.S. Navy.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, September 17, 2014 at the funeral home from 7:00 until 8:30 p.m. and other times at the residence.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is serving the Moll family.

“ The stepfather of Tracey, Troy and Trampas became a steady figure in my life as well since I was 15 years old. He loved and cared for his family and I will always remember sharing laughs at the table while we were playing board games or just having conversations. My heart goes out to all who knew and cared for him.
