I have so many fond memories of time spent in the 60's with your family, from my first cup of coffee with 6 teaspoons of sugar before learning to work really hard at harvest time by handing off to Adele tobacco leaves to string for drying/smoking. My favorite memory was sleeping under the stars as Charlie kept the fire burning all night long! Loved every moment of city cousin meets country life! He was a gentle giant, just like his father, with lots of great stories and a love of life and family! I will never forget his smile and the laughter he brought to us all!

“ In grammar school, Charlie - or as we said back then, "Cholly" - I always admired you more than any other student, because you were friendly, gentle, always smiled, never cursed. You were a role model for me for many years. And I just learned from this obituary that I am one month older than you -- and I always thought you were older than me because you were more mature. I have not seen you very many times in the decades after 1943, but I will miss you. God bless you, Charlie Morris.

“ I will miss Charlie a lot. I always loved talking with him at church and hearing his stories. Charlie was always doing something for the church and the community even as I was growing up he did so many things for the youth groups and Adele also. I could tell a million stories about Charlie as well as many other people as well but the one thing I really enjoyed about him was his laugh and he getting tickled at himself lol. God bless you friend and thank you for giving to the Lord. My condolences and love go out to all the Morris's such a great family.
