“ I was saddened to hear of Cheryl's passing and my family will miss her. I worked with Cheryl in the Danville Public Schools for many years as a fellow art teacher, colleague and friend, and she also taught art to my three sons over the years. They have wonderfully fun memories of Cheryl and their experiences in her art classes. She always asked me to bring her my husband's homemade meatloaf made into sandwiches with lots of mayo. Oh how she could make us laugh! Just hearing her laugh would make us keep laughing. Loved her so much. Our prayers are with you and your family, Neil.

“ I had Cheryl for art at Blairs Jr. High. Even as a ninth grader I knew she truly cared for her students. She was a great person, a great teacher.
My prayers are with the family during this time.

“ My condolences, she was my art teacher at Blair's Jr. high. She was Mrs. Raper then my favorite teacher. She was the sweetest lady.

“ I taught with Cheryl at Blairs Junior High School many years ago. She was an awesome teacher: creative, witty, fun! She was a good friend, and I will miss her.

“ Our sincere condolences to Neil and family, in the loss of Cheryl. She was a great art teacher and friend to so many of the DPS art teachers and had such a impression on so many students who had the pleasure to have her as a teacher. We truly hope that your treasured memories will help you through those difficult times. I have shared her passing with as many of our former colleagues as possible. Fondest regards, Sandra Marsh
