“ My thoughts and prayers to the family. Cindie was a special soul. I remember working with her at Barron's years(30+)...ago and I ran into her at the grocery store, she said "Kimm Harper you haven't changed one d%*# bit!" If it was on mind, it was out of her mouth. That's what I admired most about her. She will be missed by all.

“ Prayers for all who are hurting at the loss of this sweet soul,My sister Mari Smith and Cindi were best friends for as long as I can remember,I spoke with Cindi on Tuesday,my sister spoke with her daily,my sister has been in hospital for 30 days at UNC now in a reliability center in Raleigh NC trying to get physically strong enough to come home, she is in such sorrow not being able to here for the family, sending this for her and myself as Cindi was so loved and will be missed more than words can say.
