“ Cooper, we have all missed you so much since CT's in Bassett closed. No one could make a better bacon and egg sandwich. My son who is a vol. fireman in Bassett ate there everyday for years. Barry and I did just about everyday. The people of the Bassett community will always love and miss you. My prayers for your family and friends.

I will fondly remember our fence side chats, neighbor hood gossip. But more than that, I will miss your wisdom, your advice, your friendship. You were more than a neighbor, you were a best friend, a confidant, a mentor. Will always love you Cooper, you were and will always be in my heart. Thank you for always being there for me, Dennis, and Ted. I'll never forget the night you was here for me when Ted was really sick, and I'll never forget the joy you shared with me when Dennis and I were married. I just hope in my heart you know this, but somehow I think you do. Love you. Sara
