“Aunt Ann loved God, her family and friends. My memories are many, but the best are her hugs. You could even feel them over the telephone. We always looked forward to her, Uncle Frank and you girls coming to Bristol for a visit. There were so many family members to visit here. And every year we spent a few days with them in the summer. I miss her presence on this earth. But she had so many waiting for her on the other side. I see the hugs that's happening right now.
