“ Curtis was our neighbor. We live on a dead in road, not far from Curtis. There were a lot of transfer trucks coming down our road by mistake. They could not turn around on our small, narrow road. So, I would tell them to wait and then go get Curtis to help them. They were very grateful. I called him the “Rescue Man. I knew he was a Godly man by his actions. He will surely be missed.

“ I will never forget Curtis taking mom and me to my grandmother's after the awful ice storm when my grandfather died. It was after Daddy had passed and nothing was going anywhere but we made it. Curtis was such a good friend to Daddy and helped me with mom often with mom when she thought she could drive but she couldn't even walk. I don't live in Danville anymore but I still feel a dear friend has gone on.

“ *My most fondest memories of you were when Jill and I would spend the day at your shop on weekends sitting in whichever truck we liked best out back - we would act like we were driving them and blow the horns. I remember using your basement at your house as a skating rink. Friday nights were the BEST THERE- it was steak night. You will be missed deeply! My childhood could be summed up at your house, growing up. You and Judy were my second parents and I'll never forget the kindness you and your family showed me. Rest easy, your time on earth is done.
