“ Daisy was a wonderful lady who chose for her profession taking care of the sick and elderly. She was great at this job, as she had learned all kinds of methods of keeping her patients in good health. Daisy took care of our Mom, she would stay 13 days and another lady would stay 2 days and give her a break. I feel sure she is living in her heavenly home today with a crown full of jewels!! And a body renewed!! I love you, Daisy, I have said it before, and will always say it. Enjoy the journey-give Mama, Daddy, Thomas & Pat a big hug from us. One day we will meet again in the not to distant future.
