“ Danny was a great man, and I was honored to have the privilege to know him, and worked for him. I remember one time working in the Banburys, #7 was down, I was TRYING to help Daniel get it reset, but instead I shut the power off. Which was not good. Danny had came in the next morning. I just knew I was going to get it. But Danny asked me if I learned lessons good. I said, yes sir. And all he said was, you learned a good one last night, I'm sure you won't do that again. I said, yes sir. 😊 RIP Mr. Dehart I won't forget you.....

“ My sincerest sympathy to the Dehart Family. I met Danny through his kids Michelle and Daniel who are friends. Though we've not seen each other in years, I have found memories of visits to their home and would sometimes stop by just to see Danny and Linda. There was never a dull moment in the conversations with Danny, and no matter when I visited he always asked me if I was hungry, or if he could get me anything, just the kinda guy he was. I now have teenagers of my own, and looking back Danny and Linda created the type environment I want my kids and their friends to always have, open, welcoming, loving and fun. ~Kenny Wray “ Few know but Danny was just one of twenty DeHart descendant cousins.

Few it was Danny who rescued Grandpa's old John Deer tractor from an estate sale. Not many know it was Danny who commissioned and installed a beautiful roadside sign to mark the driveway to the DeHart Family cemetery on our Grandfather's Homestead where our ancestors rest..

Yes, that is the Danny DeHart I know and love, low key, get the job done without fanfare or recognition but with can-do spirit and a heart full of love.

Danny, you will be missed and remembered, but most of all, you will be loved.

To the Dehart Family,

Sincere condolences in the passing of Danny.

We worked together at Goodyear-Danville for many years and I considered him a trusted teammate and friend.

He always had a way to make things interesting and funny even in the most challenging times.

I have confidence he is now home with the Lord and will enjoy his eternal rest from the pains and aggravation of this world.

Respectfully,

Alan and Sherril Boyer
