“ Danny was a loyal listener to WBTM and would participate in our contests. He thoroughly enjoyed Retro Hits and would call every Saturday between 4-7, without fail, to request a song. He had surprising knowledge and varied tastes for the music of that era... particularly 60's and 70's. He called and made his last request just hours before the good Lord called him home. I was shocked to learn of his passing, through a listener, who heard him regularly on the radio, saw his obituary, and made me aware. I will miss his participation, sense of humor, and laughter. Hopefully the good Lord is streaming WBTM in heaven and he can continue to listen. My deepest sympathy to Danny's family and may his memory be eternal. (Alex Vardavas)

I can't remember...but one of the songs he would request more than others was the Witch Queen of New Orleans. I'm so sorry for your loss...he was a great guy!
