

Danny McClain

April 19, 1950 - October 17, 2011

On October 17, 2011, Danny Ray McClain passed away peacefully at home with his family by his side. Danny was born in Clincho, VA on April 19, 1950. He battled end stage renal disease with dialysis for the last 16 years. Previously, he owned Country Junction where he was known for serving his customers with a big smile and a good hot dog. Danny will be greatly missed by his mother, Muriel McClain; wife, Teena McClain; son, Bruce McClain (Kelly); daughter, Danielle McClain Flaig (Scott); sister-in-law, Wanda McClain; grandbabies, Elizabeth Payne, Aaron McClain and Jacob Flaig; five aunts, an uncle and a host of other family and friends. He was predeceased by his father, Ray McClain; brother, Randy McClain and two uncles. Family and friends will meet at Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel on Wednesday night from 7:00-8:30 pm and other times at the residence, 154 Kentuck Road, Apt. I-73. The funeral service will be Thursday, October 20, 2011 at 2:00 P.m. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with Pastor Michael Kent officiating. The family suggests donations to the National Kidney Foundation. The family would like to thank Lisa Marie and Lilly from Legacy Hospice of the Piedmont, Duke University ICU & 8100 staff and everyone for visits and prayers. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is serving the McClain family.

Tribute Wall

“ Tina I just found out about Danny and my heart breaks for you. He was a wonderful man and will be deeply missed by all especially by you. You have many great memories to help you through. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
