“ To Deborah's family. I am so sorry to hear this news! I just found out today, April 2. She was my neighbor and friend. I hired her some to help with my mom and she was an excellent sitter. She cared deeply for her patients. I will miss her so much. I know you will find her on the beaches of heaven. RIP my friend.--Susan Hatcher

“ I have been fortunate for almost thirty years to call myself Deborah's son-in-law, and we've shared a lot of wonderful times together over the years. Deborah, I have one final thing that I shared with you last night, and whether you heard me or not, I will never know. But I thank you again for these people. Without you, I would not have this beautiful family that I cherish so much.

Debra was always a sweet person to me, we all had some good times when Perry and I got together, I married Bonnie her sister back in the late 70s, and we all had some good days in our youth, as time flies and we drift apart I will always have fond memories of Debra. May you walk with Christ now, and be happy in heaven my love to you my friend, God bless you.
