

Dixie Vernon

March 18, 1950 - September 16, 2017

Dixie Vernon, 67, of Leasburg, North Carolina, passed away on September 16th, 2017, after a short battle with cancer.

Dixie was an avid Carolina Panthers and Tarheel fan and a tireless volunteer and leader in her community. She spent 35 years as the pianist at Union UMC. She was a member of the Leasburg Ruritan Club for 20 years where she received the Outstanding President's Award in 2014. She volunteered with the Caswell County Parish for 2 years where she was presented with the Volunteer of the Year award in 2013. She was also a volunteer for the Caswell County Senior Center as well various other projects through these groups.

Dixie leaves behind her lifelong soul mate and husband of 31 years, Edward; a son, Travis Adams (Amanda) and grandsons Brantley and Mitch; daughter, Shawna Chrismon (Kevin) and granddaughter, Elizabeth; daughter, Tamala Vernon, and grandson, Dylan; two sisters Daphne Helmprecht and Constance Johansson and a multitude of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great nephews, great-great-nephews, as well as many extended family and friends who love her.

Dixie is preceded in death by her parents, a brother and a sister.

A Memorial Service for Dixie will be conducted from the Union United Methodist Church in Leasburg, NC on Sunday, September 24 at 2:00 p.m. with visitation following the service and at other times the family will be at the residence, 6030 US Hwy 119 N, Leasburg, NC, 27291.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggest that donations may be made in her memory to the Caswell County Senior Center, 649 Firetower Rd, Yanceyville NC 27379.

Wrenn-Yeatts Yanceyville Chapel is respectfully serving the Vernon family.

Dixie and I were friends and neighbors since childhood and had many great times together with Edward, our other friends and family as we traveled life through adolescence, teens and adult years. She is missed. I know her and Edward and her family will be re-united when the lord deems the time is right
