Dollie Ann McCubbins Rich, 84, of 453 Pine Lake Road, went home to be with her Lord on Monday, December 15th, after declining health over the past year. Born June 7, 1930, she was the daughter of the late Mae Sue Alverson McCubbins and James Harry McCubbins.

She was a graduate of Schoolfield High School and lived her life in Danville, VA, where she opened and managed the concession stand at Pine Lake Pool and served as president of the After Five La Sertoma Club. She was a former member of several churches, including Calvary, Forest Lawn, Kentuck, Shermont, and Vandola Baptist, where she sang in the choir and actively served. On October 25, 1947, she married James A. Rich, Jr. In addition to her husband, she is survived by her sons, James A. Rich III (Ginny) and Wade V. Rich (Brenda), and her daughters, Debbie R. Smoak and Laurie R. Taylor (Allen), plus eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Betty M. Galloway (Richard) and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by two brothers, Paul McCubbins and James Harry McCubbins, Jr, and two sisters, Ruth M. Hylton and Theresa M. Sage.

Special thanks to her daughter-in-law Brenda and her granddaughter Paige for the loving care they provided her the past four months, allowing her to fulfill her wish of remaining at home through her final days.
