

Dollie Shumate

October 6, 1916 - September 29, 2010

Mrs. Dollie Turner Shumate, age 93 of 180 Riverbend Road, Danville, passed away Wednesday evening, September 29, 2010 at Danville Regional Medical Center after a decline in health for several years. Mrs. Shumate was born on October 6, 1916 in Pittsylvania County, a daughter of the late James M. Turner and the late Fannie Phelps Turner. She had lived her entire life in the Danville area where she was employed as a sales associate for Sears and Peebles Department Store. She taught Sunday School for sixty five years and was the clerk of Stokesland Baptist Church for thirty years, she was also a past President of the WMU. In 2009 she became a member of Schoolfield Baptist Church. She was married to Richard Lee Shumate, who died on November 10, 1999. Mrs. Shumate is survived by three sons, Richard L. Shumate, Jr. and wife, Lillian , Stanley Shumate and wife, Nancy all of Danville, Clyde A. Shumate and wife, Sandra of Ridgeway, one sister, Nellie Mayes of Danville, five grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren. Mrs. Shumate was predeceased by a son, Sterling Shumate, three brothers, Leonard Turner, Charlie Turner, Aubrey Turner and a sister, Nannie Kennedy. Funeral services will be conducted at 11:00 am Saturday, October 2, 2010 from Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with Rev. David Turbyfill and Minister Hershel Stone officiating. Interment will follow in the Shumate Family Cemetery. The family will receive friends Friday evening, October 1, 2010 at the funeral home from 7:00 to 8:30 pm. At other times the family will be at the residence, 180 Riverbend Road, Danville. The family suggest memorials maybe made to Schoolfield Baptist Church "Elevator Fund", 12 Schoolfield Drive, Danville, Virginia 24541. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Shumate family.