

Dolores Strader Wyles

September 13, 1936 - August 5, 2016

Dolores Jean Strader Wyles, 79, of Danville, died Friday, August 05, 2016 at Stratford Health & Rehab after a decline in health for the past 5 months.

Mrs. Wyles was born in Danville, VA on September 13, 1936, the daughter of the late Wylie Randolph Strader and Kathleen Carter Strader.

Mrs. Wyles worked in Jewelry Sales Management at Wal-Mart and later worked for Captain Copy, Inc. in Customer Service. She was a member of Brosville United Methodist Church. She also was the founder and the Queen of the Sassy Lady Red Hat Club and a member of the Danville Garden Club.

She was married to the late, Curtis Lee Wyles.

Survivors include two daughters, Venus Hendrix, and husband, Morris; Michelle Carter, both of Danville; a sister, Faye Morris, of Ringgold; two grandsons, Jess Hendrix and Nolan Hendrix.

In addition to her husband, she was predeceased by two sisters, Randy and Debbie Strader.

A Celebration of Life service will be held on Sunday, August 7, 2016 at 5:00 PM at Brosville United Methodist Church conducted by the Rev. Intek Oh. The family will receive friends immediately following the service at the church and at the residence of her daughter, Venus, 1510 Deercree Lane.

The family requests that you wear Purple and Red to the service and in lieu of flowers that memorial donations can be made to Brosville United Methodist Church.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is serving the family.

“ *Venus and Michelle,
I know the pain you are both feeling all too well. Your mom was so interesting and marched to the beat of her own DRUM...this is what I will remember most. Her laugh was contagious and made everyone smile. I cherish the trips we took along with those Red Hat events. You will always be our family...
Love forever,
