“ To our friend Mark and the entire Robertson family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. He lived an impactful life and has left quite a legacy in a successful marriage, four good kids and their children. I am reminded of a poem that seems fitting:

"The man is a success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who leaves the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had."
