“ Wanda, Pop Harraway and family,
I can't begin to express my sorrows for your loss. I myself have not comprehended her passing and while I'm not related by blood; I considered Dot a guiding figure that helped shape my life. She drove a hard bargain, but her morals and values were above reproach. My heart aches for you all and I regret not being able to be there during this difficult time. May God give you strength and peace to navigate through these troubled waters. So many good memories and those are the ones that I try to focus on and not that Dot is no longer physically with us. I'm honored and touched to be a part of your family and no one could ask for anything more. My thoughts and prayers are with you and I love you all so very much. Many blessings,
