“ I grew up in Southhall Baptist Church, I remember Ms. Dorothy playing on Sunday morning very well! She was a fine southern lady, who loved God and showed it everyday and in every way!

“ Many fond memories of Dorothy come to mind: I really loved to hear and watch her play the piano. When Dewey & Dorothy were married, I was about ten--or so years old--and thought they were so sweet together--so in love with each other--such an adorable couple . Loved to visit them when they lived near the church. Now, whenever we sing The Old Rugged Cross, I always think fondly of the Christmas Program at Southhall when Dorothy taught us the pantomime. Those were memorable times....The Bradleys were such a special family with their three lovely daughters and Odell. I loved going to Southhall to church with all of them.
