

Douglas "Buck" Carlton Adams Jr.

July 26, 1955 - February 1, 2020

Douglas "Buck" Carlton Adams, Jr., 64, of Bedford, VA, died on Saturday, February 1, 2020, at Carriage Hill Retirement, after a decline in health for the past few months.

Mr. Adams was born on July 26, 1955, in Augusta, GA, a son of the late Douglas Carlton Adams, Sr. and the late Geraldine Craig Adams. He spent most of his life in various areas of Virginia including Danville, Portsmouth, Blacksburg, and Bedford. He worked for Emerson Creek Pottery until his retirement. He was a man of few words; an artisan; and a craftsman. He was of the Christian Faith.

Survivors include a son, Jarad Douglas Adams and wife Nicole, of Urbana, IL; a granddaughter, Parker Grace Adams; and two sisters, Fara A. Caldwell, of Mechanicsville, VA, and Lisa C. Adams, of Suffolk, VA.

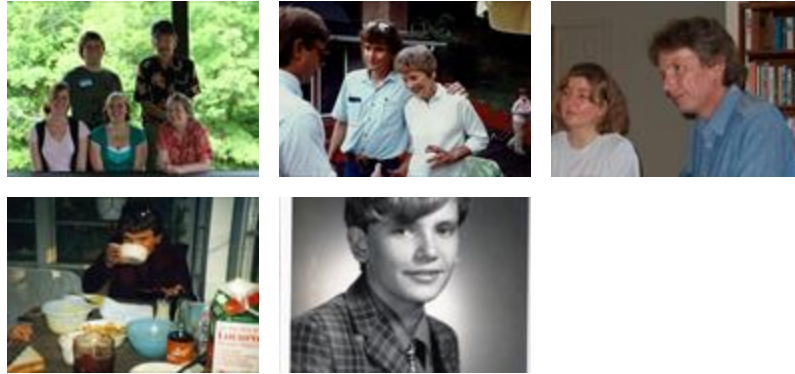

A graveside service in Schoolfield Cemetery will take place at a later date.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is serving the Adams family.

Buck was a lot like Geraldine when it came to getting his picture taken. I have only found a couple in my collection.

“ I remember one July when you walked in the front door the stink would almost knock you down. Finally Gerry and I started looking around and opened the closet door which was right across from the front door. Buck had hid Easter eggs in a pair of boots and they had rotted! Wow!!
