I'm so sorry for your loss. Your mama was an angel on earth I remember her sweet voice and her great laugh and I can hear her saying Oh Charlie, when your daddy would tell one of his off colored jokes which he was famous for. She was always a lady and gave unconditional love to those she loved. Always remember the loving mama that raised and loved you and as long as you live she'll be alive in all your memories of her.

*Love,
Linda Taylor Carawan*
